Job Title: Engineer, Sort Systems

Job Description: The Sort Systems Engineer will detail and discuss plans for sorting systems and equipment with business owners, management representatives, engineers, architects or other professional and technical personnel at commercial, industrial, and other establishments in an attempt to find and provide the most efficient solution possible to meet their requirements. The Sort Systems Engineer will also review blueprints, plans, and other customer documents to develop and prepare cost estimates or projected increases in production from client's use of proposed system, equipment or service; prepare and propose changes in equipment, processes, or use of materials or services which would result in cost reduction or improvement in operations; provide technical services to clients relating to use, operation, and maintenance of equipment; draw up sales or service contract for products or services; and, provide technical training to employees of client.

Minimum Requirements:

Education: None

Training: None

Experience: 36 Months in same or similar position

Work Schedule: 40 hour week.

Basic Rate of Pay: $68,806.00.00 per year

Location: CP Manufacturing, Inc.

6795 Calle de Linea

San Diego, CA 92154

Apply Online: http://www.cpglobalcompanies.com/#careers