

QRS Recycling is seeking an experienced Plant Manager with plastic manufacturing experience for their new recycling facility in Baltimore, MD.

The Plant Manager is responsible for ensure the quality, safety and productivity at the Baltimore, MD Wash Line Operations.

Responsibilities Include:

- Collaborate with General Manager and key constituents on facility commissioning and start-up
- Optimize the quality, safety, productivity, and profitability of the plant
- Lead the workforce by recruiting, training, developing and managing talent and scheduling operations
- Oversee site and process improvement initiatives, collaborating with the General Manager and others to continually improve the facility, maintenance, staffing and operations
- Develop and maintain standardized reporting, including, but not limited to: cost analysis, budget forecasts, labor utilization, manufacturing methods, capital project planning, quality, safety & productivity statistics
- Develop and maintain workplace policies and procedures to align with the above-mentioned reporting and QRS standards, continually advancing the efficient and effective use of technology and industry best-practices
- Oversee safety standards and practices throughout the facility, enforcing company and OSHA compliance and assisting with the investigation and reporting of accidents, near-misses, injuries or property damage
- Evaluate, problem-solve, communicate and decisively act upon issues that pose a risk to optimal operations, including personnel matters, mechanical failures and other problems that may arise

Requirements:

- 5+ years of management experience in industrial environment required with hands on experience in wash line operations/management
- Experience with the following plastic wash line equipment preferred: separation, grinding, washing, drying, transport, packaging, water treatment and testing
- Ability to work independently and spend around 80% of time out on the floor
- Bachelor's Degree is preferred
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office (Outlook, Excel, and Word) required. Additional experience with TME maintenance software and HMI production software preferred

Interested parties please email qrsjobs@qrsrecycling.com