

Marketing Manager of Plastics Sales and Trading

TKO Polymers is looking to hire a market savvy plastics sales and marketing professional to grow our development organization. Plastics and recycling experience is essential but we are really looking for someone with excellent development skills, prospecting ability, and the knowledge to cultivate and expand new and existing customer relationships. Social Media experience with web site development, linked in, and email response tactics are a plus. This is a hands on position and it is expected that much of your time will be spent outside of the office working with brokers, recyclers, and other plastic generators.

Compensation is based upon experience, customer knowledge, and ability to generate revenue and net income. If you are looking for a commission based position, those are available as well.
